

#SALT SUNDAY 2019

Messy Science

Hands-on science with Catalyst, Chemistry with Cabbage and George!

Story-telling and Salt Art

Performances from Becky Musto, story-teller and Nisa Khan, artist

Talks and Displays

Three wide ranging talks: On 150th Anniversary of the Periodic Table, on the Teracotta Reredos and, by Fiona Bruce MP on being a Christian in a public space

Bless the Brine

A chance to reflect and give thanks for our rich Salt heritage with the Bishop of Birkenhead and our music group led by Rob Kophamel

Communities and industries have flourished thanks to the salt reserves beneath our feet. Each year, Salt Sunday explores and celebrates this heritage with a family-friendly mix of science, music and drama.

Entry to the event is free of charge*

*Admission charges apply for the 45-minute otherwise free guided tour of the site for participants

www.saltoftheearthnetwork.net

<http://lionsaltworks.westcheshiremuseums.co.uk>

Sunday
19th May
12:30-4pm

Lion Salt Works
Ollershaw Lane
Marston
Northwich CW9 6ES

